

US 5-30 CURVE : The last time this curve flattened, yields bounced. Given the previous bond presentation this might be worth noting as BONDS could be forming a TOP TODAY.

US 5-30 curve daily : We have been battling against the 38.2% ret 67.249 for some time and here we are again. It is worth noting the reaction in March when yields popped. A key day.

US 5-30 daily : A blow up of the previous chart and highlights in March yields popped but then the RSI was more dislocated.
